Sitting hand in hand in Loincoln park recently the smitten pair admitted they were living together and deeply in love with each other. To the report that she had married Berkman the hair-dresser-manicurist has entered a vigorous denial. "We Anarchists do not believe in marriage," she declares. "Marriage means government and government means force. We don't want it."

gran' jury has adjourned. But ye're right. 'Th' gravil old Raypublican party will take care iv this matther. A Raypublican is born lery lamyli, an' they will niver allow money hearin' ta' sacred image iv Columbya an' James H. Eckels to be disposed in th' lake. It's no bee argyin' against Socialism an' be in' same token, it's no use argyin' fr it. Afther listeam to Larkin an' his talkative German trind here, I don't know the same token. don't know anny more about it thin I did befure. Schwartzmeister's idee iv it, is that ivry man shall live in a story-an'-a-haif house, wear a uny-form with a cock's feather in th' hat, an' dhrew his pay in soup tickets fr'in th' German governmint. Larkin is an dhrew his pay in soup tickets fr'in th' German governmint. Larkin is lookin' forward to a chance to get even with his boss. 'Fhat's his idee iv an industriee! Hiven. Th' Lord knows i'd rejoice to see th' day whin Hinnissy wud be shakin' a throwel fr'm th' top is a wall an' yellin' 'Mort' at Andhrew Carnaygle scramblin' bare-legged up a ladder, or myslif writin' porthry i'r th' governint, ordherin' th' king iv England to bring me a poached egg m' England to bring me a poached egg and a cup iv tay, and be quick about it, darn ye. But I'm afraid it won't happen in our day. That alone wull make me a Socialist. I'm sthrong fr anny rivolution that ain't goin' to happen in my day. But th' truth is, me boy, that nawthin' happens annyhow. I see great changes takin' place ivry day, but no change at all ivry 50 years. What we call this here country is over pretings to want to they new iv ours pretinds to want to thry new experiments, but a sudden change gives it a chill. It's been to the circus an bought railroad tickets in a hurry so often that it thinks quick change is short change. Whin I take me morn-like the change is the change. short change. Whin I take me mornin' walk an' see little boys an' girls with their dinner pails on their arms goin' down to th' yards. I'm th' hottest Socialist ye iver see. I'd be annything to stop it. I'd be a Raypublican even.
But whin I think how long this foolish old buildin' has stood an' how manny a good head has busted against it. I be-gin to wondher whether 'tis amy use f'r me to thry to bump it off th' map. Larkin here says th' capitalist system Is made up iv th' bones iv billions iv people, like wan iv thim coral reefs that I used to think was pethrified sponge. If that is so, maybe th' on'y thing I can do about it is to plant a few geeranyums, injye thim while I live an' thin conthribute me own bustel shouldher-blades f'r another Rocky-
